

Minnesota International Center
A World Affairs Council

Minnesota International Center

The Guantanamo Bay Challenge: Finding the Balance between Our Nation's Security and Our Nation's Ideals A Public Forum with James Dorsey and Nicole Moen, Fredrickson & Byron

James Dorsey

On November 12, MIC will host a public forum with James Dorsey and Nicole Moen of the Fredrickson & Byron Law Firm, who represent an Algerian detainee held in Guantanamo Bay. They will explain who the detainees are, and discuss their treatment and the legal recourse available to test the appropriateness of their continued detention. The presentation will include photos of the prison and sketches of the interrogation procedures.

Nicole Moen

An advocate for Human Rights, James Dorsey has represented the MCLU, the ACLU the NAACP, death row inmates, as well as many other indigent clients in the Minneapolis area over his 25 year career.

Nicole Moen is a commercial litigator and serves as translator during visits with their client.

-
- Date: Monday, November 12, 2007
Time: Registration 5:30 P; program 6:00-7:30 P
Place: Humphrey Institute for Public Affairs, Cowles Auditorium
301 19th Ave S, Minneapolis
Cost: $5 MIC members, cosponsors, and students,
$15 Non-members
Advance registration and payment is required.

Register online at www.micglobe.org or call 612.625.4421

This event is co-sponsored by the Minnesota Advocates for Human Rights